

AmeriPro Health Acquires Priority Medical Transport and Expands Midwest Presence

ATLANTA – Feb 5, 2025 – AmeriPro Health, an Atlanta-based leading provider of patient logistics and last-mile healthcare delivery services with operations in multiple states, announced it has acquired Priority Medical Transport, a well-established emergency medical services provider in Nebraska.

"We're thrilled to bring AmeriPro's innovative Emergency Medical Services to Nebraska" said Suhas Uppalapati, CEO of AmeriPro Health. "AmeriPro is steadfast in our vision to revolutionize patient logistics, and this transaction is consistent with our commitment to providing access to unmatched patient health services to members of these communities – from institutional partners and other local hospitals to health plans and employers."

With the acquisition of Priority Medical Transport, AmeriPro Health expands its suite of patient-centric 911, interfacility medical transportation, and critical care transport services across Nebraska, further strengthening its presence in the Midwest.

"Coming under the portfolio of AmeriPro Health provides Priority Medical Transport with an opportunity to continue to grow and provide the highest quality services to its customers," said Dr. Jim Smith, Founder of Priority Medical Transport. "Together they will also be able to leverage the resources of a high-growth company that shares its quest to provide the very best in patient care."

AmeriPro Health continues to expand its reach through strategic growth initiatives to deliver sustainable transportation solutions, prioritize patient safety, and drive innovation across the EMS industry. The acquisition of Priority Medical Transport is a key step in strengthening AmeriPro Health's position as a trusted partner for hospitals, healthcare systems, and municipalities seeking efficient, high-quality medical transportation services.

Founded in 2018, AmeriPro Health is a fast-growing, tech-enabled medical transportation and patient logistics platform serving communities across Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee, and now Nebraska. As a preferred employer of paramedics and EMTs, AmeriPro Health offers competitive compensation, advanced training opportunities, and career growth pathways, ensuring first responders have the resources and support they need to provide best-in-class emergency medical services.

About AmeriPro Health

AmeriPro Health encompasses companies that optimize patient logistics and last-mile healthcare delivery. Its extensive portfolio includes emergency and critical care services, non-emergency medical transportation, patient coordination, population health services, and personalized home-based care solutions, ensuring a seamless patient care experience.

By covering the complete spectrum of patient care, AmeriPro Health enhances patient outcomes, improves healthcare efficiency, and provides timely, location-appropriate access to care. AmeriPro Health remains committed to attracting and retaining paramedics and EMTs, anticipating future needs, and delivering on the evolving demands of healthcare partners and communities.

For more information, visit ameriprohealth.com.